

International
Maritime
Archaeology &
Shipwreck
Society

Roy Davies and Neville Oldham Memorial Fund

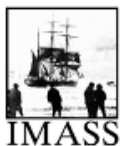

The International Maritime Archaeology and Shipwreck Society (IMASS) welcomes applications from students for sponsorship to the 2025 shipwreck conference.

The IMASS Committee manages a fund that supports continuing education in the field of maritime research, by promoting seminars and courses associated with our annual Shipwreck Conference. The fund was set up in memory of two former members, Roy Davis and Neville Oldham.

The fund will sponsor up to four students (undergraduate or postgraduate) from local universities who have an interest in maritime history and archaeology. The fund will cover:

- Day ticket to the conference held on Saturday 1st February 2025 at the University of Plymouth
- Lunch at the conference
- Post conference evening meal at the Crown Plaza Hotel
- Day ticket to the event workshop held on Sunday 2nd February 2025
- Standard travel to-from the conference and accommodation in Plymouth (if required)

To apply for sponsorship, please complete the attached application form and return to fran.hockley@plymouth.ac.uk by Friday 17th January 2025. Students will be selected by the IMASS committee and notified by Monday 20th January 2025.

International
Maritime
Archaeology &
Shipwreck
Society

Name

University

Degree studying

Year of study

Email address

In no more than 300 words, describe your interests in maritime archaeology, research and exploration. Details might include scuba diving experience, your interests within your university degree, hobbies, previous work experience etc.

Dietary requirements (for lunch and dinner, this does not affect your application!)